Becoming a Member of the Theosophical Society in New Zealand

The Theosophical Society has branches across New Zealand. The benefit of joining a local branch is that you can attend their meetings, receive their local newsletter, have access to their library, and share in the exploration of Theosophy with like-minded people in your area.

If there isn't a branch in your area, or if you would prefer to be a member not attached to a branch, you may choose to join as a member of the National Section.

Membership applications are to be submitted to the branch you wish to join, or to the National headquarters in Auckland if you are joining the National Section. The headquarters' address is located at the bottom of this form.

Applying to a Branch

To apply to be a member of a branch, see the list of branches below and follow the link to the website to see information about the branch, their annual subscription rate and contact details. Submit your application form to your chosen branch.

Branches in New Zealand: Check the website for branch details: <https://theosophy.nz/centres>

Auckland, Canterbury, Dunedin, Far North, New Plymouth, Orewa, Palmerston North, Whanganui, Whangarei, Wellington

Applying to the National Section or an Affiliated Centre

To apply to be a member of the National Section, email membership@theosophy.nz for rates and more information.

If you are joining an Affiliated Centre, you will tick the box for I wish to be a National Section Member on the membership form and enter the name of your chosen centre. There is currently one Affiliated Centre in New Zealand: Hawke's Bay.
